

Lifetime Achievement Award

About the Award

The NCIS Board of Directors directed NCIS to formally recognize someone who is currently serving or has served (retired) in a leadership capacity within the industry. This individual must exhibit, or have exhibited a long-term commitment to outstanding leadership and guidance to, and knowledge of the crop insurance industry.

Objective

The Lifetime Achievement Award is designed to recognize outstanding leadership on behalf of the entire crop insurance industry by an individual who consistently demonstrates or demonstrated outstanding leadership by serving on an NCIS committee at any level.

Eligibility

- Candidates eligible for nomination include current or retired members of the crop insurance industry who are currently working or have worked for an Approved Insurance Provider.
- Candidates must have served on one or more NCIS committees and participated in leadership roles.
- Candidates must exhibit strong personal and business ethics.
- Candidates must demonstrate effectiveness in service to the crop insurance industry.
- Candidates must represent themselves, his/her Approved Insurance Provider, and the crop insurance industry well.

How to Enter

1. Select a nominee. This nominee should exemplify the qualities of a true leader. Please consult the eligibility requirements closely.
2. Fill out the application on the back of this page and then address the three questions on a separate sheet(s) of paper. Include your contact information. If NCIS has questions regarding the application, the nominator will be contacted.
3. Send application and narrative to NCIS by October 15, 2022.

Nomination

All nominations will be considered. The NCIS Communications & Outreach Committee will review all submissions and make a formal recommendation for selection of this award to the NCIS Board of Directors. More than one recipient may be awarded annually with the award presented at the 2023 Crop Insurance Industry Annual Convention.
